

MOBS RAN RIOT.

Whites Hunted for Negroes and Killed or Wounded Them.

MURDER OF POLICE OFFICERS

The Cause of the Uprising—All Good Citizens Asked to Keep the Peace, by the Mayor of New Orleans—Stores Looted and Many Were Wounded—Innocents Suffered.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26.—All last night and up to half-past 3 o'clock this morning, mobs ran riot through this city on a hunt for negroes, and those unfortunate who fell into their grasp were either killed or so badly wounded that they were left for dead. After the mobs got started, the negroes became terrorized and took shelter in their homes and the outhouses of white people, who protected them, as it was only the unsuspecting and inoffensive negroes who were the victims.

The police were powerless, as fast as they apparently drove the crowd in one section, it only re-formed and moved to some other points to continue its devilish work.

The mobs were composed almost entirely of boys under twenty-one years of age, and they had no leaders, but acted on a common impulse. The movement started from a gathering of men at the Lee statue, corner of St. Charles avenue and Howard street, gathering force as it moved and gradually becoming inflamed to the point of desperation.

Listened to a Speech.

It was not until after they had stopped in Morrison square, on Washington avenue and Franklin street, near the scene of the assassination of Captain Day and Officer Lamb, that they listened to a speech from a man hailing from Kerner and then started out to waylay the negroes. Most of the colored population had taken warning from the excitement of the night before and kept indoors, but there were some returning to their homes from work and it was one of these who was the first victim. He was in a crowded Henry Clay avenue car, near the square and when the mob saw him, they rushed for the car and dragged him out, firing one shot in the car. He turned out to be Alex. Ruffin, a Pullman car porter, and was badly used up. He was cut and shot and beaten over the head. There was another negro with him in the car, who hid under the seat and after the car had started they discovered him, but they could not catch it.

Conductor Shot in the Foot.

J. Cluney, the conductor of a Peters avenue car, was shot in the foot on Franklin street, and the car riddled with bullets.

F. G. Davis, the motorman of the same car, was also shot in the foot. Frank Shepherd, a white man who was in the crowd, was shot in the right arm.

Coming down to Jackson avenue they met T. P. Sanders, the colored porter of an insurance agency. He had heard the indiscriminate shooting and stepped out of his gate to see what it was about. He stepped into the arms of the mob and they made short work of him. They stabbed and shot him in the back and left him for dead. In the attack his watch was stolen. A dozen or more of the mob went out further into the rear of town and met a negro named Esther Fields, standing in her door, and brutally beat her.

The Mob Divided.

The main crowd continued on downtown, heading for the Parish prison. They were met a block away by a squad of police, who stopped them. They then began breaking into the second-hand stores on Rampart street, in that neighborhood, hunting for arms and ammunition. The police made a demonstration and drove them off. After lingering around Rampart street for an hour the mob divided, one part going down town and the other starting back up town. The latter crowd started for the new basin in the vicinity of the Illinois Central depot, as that is a popular rendezvous for negroes. Before starting, they indulged in a little pistol play and wounded Oswald McMahon, a twelve-year-old boy, in the leg. The boy had been following the crowd. On the way up they went through the Poydras market and found there are thousands of women who nearly suffer death from irregular menses. Sometimes the "period" comes too often—sometimes not often enough—sometimes the flow is too scant, and again it is too profuse. Each symptom shows that Nature needs help, and that there is trouble in the organs concerned. Be careful when in any of the above conditions. Don't take any and every nostrum advertised to cure female troubles.

Every Month

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

is the one safe and sure medicine for irregular or painful menstruation. It cures all the ailments that are caused by irregularity, such as leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, nervousness, pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. By regulating the menses so that they occur every twenty-eighth day, all those aches disappear together. Just before your time comes, get a bottle and see how much good it will do you. Druggists sell it at $1.

a negro watchman, George Morris, whom they proceeded to chase through the market, shooting him as he ran. When he fell with two shots in the back, the young fiends stabbed him to finish him. He is seriously injured.

White Man Was Shot.

John Deeds, a white man, was shot during the indiscriminate shooting in the Poydras market. They searched the vicinity of the basin thoroughly and failing to find anyone, walked out towards Franklin street, where they passed a negro seated in front of a bar-room, whom they promptly shot. He was Dan White, a roustabout, and got a bullet in his right wrist.

About 1 o'clock they headed for the neighborhood of Canal street, and on the way looted two second-hand stores. They were trying to break into one place and fired several shots into it with the result that they wounded one of their own crowd, a man named John Doran, in the leg.

They moved on down to Canal street and at the corner of Rampart, started to break into another second-hand store, but a patrol wagon full of police came up and dispersed them.

Terrible Execution by the Mob.

The down-town mob, however, did terrible execution and kept up its work until half-past 3 o'clock. A notorious character named Pepe Rouse took the lead and they headed for the neighborhood of Franklin and Custom house streets. They found no negroes there and were going down Villere street, towards some negro hovels, when they saw a negro in a crowded Villere street car. They halted the car, pulled the trolley off, ordered about twenty passengers out and then murdered the black. He was dragged out and filled with lead, being instantly killed. He was evidently a laborer. His name is not known.

The mob then moved on out to the vicinity of the old basin on Toulouse street, and terrorized that neighborhood, but evidently found no negroes. Then they went down as far as Kofre and Dauphin streets, where they found an old negro, seventy-five years old, named Baptist Pilo, whom they beat and shot almost to death.

Headed For French Market.

Coming up town again, they headed for the French market and met an unknown negro on Decatur, between St. Philip and Ursuline, whom they promptly beat into an insensible condition and left for dead. He was discovered an hour later and died shortly after. He had been pulled from a meat wagon, which he was driving to the French market.

They found another negro in the market and promptly put an end to his existence. He is not known.

They located the porter of the Louisville & Nashville pay car and chased him up the levee. He ran into the custom house, where he was protected by the night watchman at the point of a Winchester. The crowd sniped around for a while and then gradually dispersed.

Ask Citizens to Keep the Peace.

Acting Mayor Noble issued a proclamation at half-past 11 o'clock, calling on all good citizens to keep the peace, but it did not stop the rioting.

Just before daybreak, the remnant of the mob gathered in the vicinity of the Spanish fort railroad and waylaid negroes as they were going to their work at Chalmette. Some of them came along and the mob chased them, firing as they ran. A baker on his morning rounds, caught a bullet in the leg.

William Armstrong, a negro, sitting on the Orleans bridge, was shot in the thigh by a mob that passed there last night. He made his way home and only reported his injury this morning.

RATHBONE'S ARREST

Will Soon be Made—Secretary Root Will be Given Full Charge of the Matter—The Ohio Man's Guilt Fully Proven.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Now that Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow's report has been made public, the arrest of ex-Director General of Posts Rathbone, at Havana, may soon follow. It is intimated at the postoffice department that the delay in arresting Mr. Rathbone has been due to a desire to await the statement of the results of Mr. Bristow's investigation, and also to explain items which the report says are unaccounted for. Postmaster General Smith and Fourth Assistant Bristow decline to discuss the matter. The postmaster general's letter of transmittal of the report to Secretary Root calls particular attention to two important points in the case against Mr. Rathbone on which the latter's expected arrest probably will be mainly based. In this letter Mr. Smith says:

No Account of the Warrants.

"It further shows that E. G. Rathbone, late director general of posts, drew two warrants of $500 each, on which he himself obtained the money, and that no account or explanation has been rendered; that he appropriated a per diem of $5 per day for several months after it had been expressly prohibited by the postmaster general and that he incurred extravagant and unjustifiable expenditures of a personal character, making a charge upon the postal revenue."

Secretary Root spent almost the entire morning in consideration of the report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow on the Cuban postal frauds. It is understood that an order has been issued by General Wood for the arrest of Rathbone. Secretary Root discussed with Colonel Edwards, chief of the insular division, and Judge Magroon, attorney for this division, financial and legal questions involved. After the conference it was said that General Wood would be given full charge of the matter.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried all the worst remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes that the marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

LABOR DAY

Proclamation Issued by Governor Atkinson—September 3 Designated as the Date—Scriptural Phrases Predominate.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 26.—Governor G. W. Atkinson has issued his proclamation for the observance of Labor Day, Monday, September 3, in this state. The document is characteristic and unique, and is as follows:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

The state of West Virginia, by its legislature, having passed a law setting apart the first Monday of September of each year as Labor Day, and at which time all toilers should stop aside from their regular employment, and give such day to rest, improvement and enjoyment.

Now, therefore, I, George W. Atkinson, governor of the state of West Virginia, do hereby recommend and request that on Monday, September 3, 1900, all places where labor is employed within the state of West Virginia, shall, as far as possible, so to do, be shut down, so that all toilers may be permitted to enjoy this day as one of rest from all cares and duties. In this manner, better than any other, the dignity and worth of labor can be brought to the attention of the public, and its value to the country at large may be more fully understood and appreciated.

"In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art and unto dust shalt thou return."—Genesis, 3:19.

"Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work."—Exodus 20:9.

"For thou shalt eat the labor of thine hands; happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee."—Psalm, 128:2.

"In all above there is profit; but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury."—Proverbs, 14:23.

"The labor of the righteous tendeth to life; the fruit of the wicked to sin."—Proverbs, 19:16.

"Man goeth forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening."—Psalm, 104:24.

"He that gathereth in summer is a wise son; but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame."—Proverbs, 10:5.

"He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread; but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough."—Proverbs, 28:19.

"Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished; but he that gathereth by labor shall increase."—Proverbs, 13:11.

"There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God."—Ecclesiastes, 4:9.

"The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep."—Ecclesiastes, 5:12.

"So built we the wall, and all the wall was joined together unto the hair thereof; for the people had a mind to work."—Nehemiah, 4:6.

"Let him that stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth."—Ephesians, 4:28.

"And labor, working with our own hands being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it."—1. Corinthians, 4:12.

"Now, he that planteth and he that watereth are one; and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor."—1. Corinthians, 3:8.

"The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits."—2 Timothy, 2:6.

"But what think of ye? A certain man and two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go to work to-day in my vineyard.'—Matthew 21:28.

"And that ye study to be quiet and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands as we commanded you."—1. Thessalonians, 2:10.

"For even when we were with you, thus we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat."—II. Thessalonians, 2:10.

"For the workman is worthy of his meat."—Matthew, 10:10.

In witness whereof, I have set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed, at the capital, in the city of Charleston, this 26th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1900, and of the state the thirty-eighth.

G. W. ATKINSON.
By the governor,
WM. M. O. DAWSON,
Secretary of State.

Generous.

"I am willing to bear my share of the expenses of procuring the divorce, Harold," remarked the misnamed wife who had been freed from her bonds. "No, Georgiana," said the ex-husband with a wave of the hand, "you have always bought my ties. I will pay for the untie."—Chicago Tribune.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wheeling Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside, from the kidneys.

Don't's kidney pills get inside.

They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wheeling proof that this is so.

Mrs. R. E. Sharp, whose husband keeps a dry goods store and general produce store on the Pike, says: "There was a soreness and aching pain in my back over the left kidney extending down through the thigh. I suffered a great deal from headaches, felt run down and used up, as my back bothered me a great deal in getting around the house. I saw Don's Kidney Pills highly recommended on different occasions, and as I was complaining of my back being worse than usual, my mother got a box for me at the Logan Drug Company. They relieved my back right away and I felt very much stronger and better."
